

DAIS Teaching Position and School Overview

Initial contracts are for two years. After completing the initial contract, renewal contracts are for one year. Benefits package includes a competitive salary, rent-free furnished housing, annual round-trip air fare to home of record, individual professional development allowance of USD $1,000, Chinese income tax paid by the school (equivalent of 25% of salary), relocation allowance, and visa procurement support.

DAIS is accredited by Western Association of Schools and Colleges, Council of International Schools, and the China National Center for Curriculum and Textbook Development.

Modern, western-style teacher housing is located near the school in a pleasant, gated community. Amenities include a gymnasium, 25m pool, all-weather sports field, fitness center, tennis court, dance studio, Hungry Scholar Café on-site, and access to the nearby Raffles Medical Clinic. The location of our campus, situated in the Golden Pebble Beach National Resort Area, promotes a healthy lifestyle offering clean, fresh air; walking distance to the beach; and biking, hiking, and golfing nearby.

More information about the position and our school is available at our web-site, www.daischina.org. Specific inquiries may be sent to employment@daischina.net.
